

ENH 2201 / EN 2102 — Enhancement III (Entrepreneurship)

Answer Key — Second Year Examination, Semester II (March/April 2024)

Q#	Answer	Option	Explanation
1	b	Bootstrapping	Bootstrapping means using only existing/personal resources to fund a startup.
2	d	Elon Musk	Elon Musk is widely recognized as a prominent modern entrepreneur.
3	a	Opportunities	The 9 components of the Business Model Canvas do not include 'Opportunities'.
4	d	Customer Segments	Customer Segments describes the groups of people/organizations the enterprise aims to serve.
5	a	Complexity	VUCA stands for Volatility, Uncertainty, Complexity, Ambiguity.
6	b	Vision	In the positive VUCA world, Vision counters Volatility from the negative VUCA world.
7	e	Risk	Six Sigma's DMAIC phases are Define, Measure, Analyze, Improve, Control — not Risk.
8	e	Delaying	Key entrepreneurial motivators include Vision, Passion, Commitment, and Hard Work. Delaying is not a motivator.
9	a	Owners, Customers, Employees	A business creates value for its owners, customers, and employees.
10	c	Analyzing the external environment to identify opportunities	Anticipatory entrepreneurs proactively scans the environment to find opportunities.
11	d	Entrepreneurship requires creativity, innovation, and problem-solving skills	These are the core characteristics of entrepreneurship.
12	a	Hard work always means success	This is a popular misconception — hard work does not guarantee success.
13	a	Bank Loans	Bank loans are a common and legitimate source of funding for entrepreneurs.
14	e	Rukantha Gunathileke	Rukantha Gunathileke is noted as an upcoming Sri Lankan entrepreneur in this context.
15	b	Entrepreneurship is solely focused on making a profit	This is INCORRECT — entrepreneurship also involves creating value, solving problems, and social impact.
16	d	Product, Price, Place, Promotion	The classic 4Ps of Marketing are Product, Price, Place, and Promotion.
17	a	Growth Hacking Strategy	Growth Hacking is an entrepreneurial marketing technique focused on rapid growth.
18	a	Entrepreneurial marketing is the overlap of entrepreneurship and marketing	This is the correct definition of entrepreneurial marketing.
19	e	I, II and III	All three characteristics (entrepreneur-oriented, informal methods, capturing first customer) are correct.
20	a	Developing and deploying effective solutions to challenges, social and environmental issues	This is a core goal of social entrepreneurship.
21	a	Sole Proprietorship, Partnership, Limited Liability Company, Public Limited Company	These are the main business structures recognized in Sri Lanka.
22	c	A local resident secretary must be appointed before incorporation	Section 19 of the Companies Act requires a local resident secretary to be appointed before incorporation.
23	b	Industrial Property and Copyright	Intellectual Property rights are categorized into Industrial Property and Copyright.
24	e	Casual Employees and Apprentices/Interns	These are employment types commonly recognized under employment laws and regulations.
25	c	Dependence and Inflexibility	Dependence and inflexibility are NOT characteristics of an entrepreneur; they are the opposite.
26	e	The unchanged or existing state of affairs	Status Quo refers to the existing or unchanged state of affairs.
27	e	I, II and III	All three statements about entrepreneurs are TRUE.
28	c	Customer Jobs, Pains, and Gains	The Value Proposition Canvas includes Customer Jobs, Pains, and Gains on the customer side.
29	b	It involves creating a unique identity for a personal brand	Personal branding is about building a unique individual identity.

Q#	Answer	Option	Explanation
30	e	Beneficiary, Empathy, Idea, Impact, Business Models	These Models are commonly associated with social innovation.

Each MCQ has five (05) answers with only one (01) correct answer.